

SARAHEDSALL

Sarah Edsall (Edd-sull)

Sarah Edsall began her speaking and training career when she served the Oklahoma FFA as a state officer in 2008-2009.

She inspires audiences across the country with her energetic spirit, genuine attitude and relatable stories. Since she began speaking professionally in 2009, Sarah has shared her message with tens of thousands of people, focusing primarily on student leadership. Sarah cares about students. When she visits a group, she hopes to help students have fun, think, and feel a little more ready and excited to chase their goals.

Sarah is a graduate of Oklahoma State University with a degree in agricultural communications. In addition to professional speaking, Sarah owns and operates a graphic and web design business. But, her favorite job is being a wife and momma, and spending time with her family.
